The Fantasy Pool at Jolly Beach Resort, Antigua

-- A Jewel on an Island of 365 Beaches --

BOLANS VILLAGE, Antigua, W.I. (Summer 2008) -- The 8,000 sq. ft. Fantasy Pool at Jolly Beach is the crown jewel of this 40 acre property. Constructed during the resort's $15 million dollar renovation completed in 2001, it took nine days and 500,000 gallons of fresh water to fill what is one of the largest pools in the Caribbean.

There is a waterfall cascading down a series of huge stone steps splashing into the Jacuzzi and pool. The Jolly Beach gazebo sits atop the waterfall, overlooking the pool, with colorful gardens and the resort's mile-long white sand beach just steps away.

The free-form Fantasy Pool is home to the Splash swim-up bar, open daily from 10:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Here, beach umbrellas sit atop small, almost completely submerged tables with built-in seats so you can relax and enjoy your refreshments --including Splash Bar specialties the Hummingbird, the Jolly Beach Cooler, and Romance.

A schedule of daily activities in the pool includes aerobics, water polo and volleyball.

There is a second, Quiet Pool for anyone who wants to just laze on a raft, catch some rays or read a book.

When guests aren't in the pool, Sunfish, Hobie Cats, wind-surfers, pedal boats, and kayaks are there for the asking. Four tennis courts, two lit for night play, are presided over by a resident pro, and there's table tennis at beachside. To get in shape, the resort's Fitness Center offers a full array of professional Cybex equipment. Guests can join a group to learn mixology or a dance step -- or to rehearse for the 'talent night' that is just one offering on a nightly menu of live entertainment.
